Submissions:

The Okinawan Journal of Island Studies is a peer-reviewed, annual interdisciplinary journal that publishes papers on issues, areas, and topics related to islands and islandness. The journal welcomes papers with topics that deal with interests or issues that are parallel to those faced in Okinawa with an interdisciplinary and/or comparative lens. Those submitting article manuscripts should prepare them according to the submission guidelines at the end of the journal and send them electronically to the OJIS editorial assistant at riis@riis.skr.u-ryukyu.ac.jp.
